

Maiden Mother Crone by Athne Machdane

Fair Maiden thy grace shines forth into this community with each sunrise. May we share in your celebration of all that is beautiful within and beyond.

Great Mother thy creative will flows through this community as its lifeblood. May we share in your work of building a loving and compassionate world.

Noble Crone thy wisdom inspires this community to embrace our shadows. May we share in your endless journey of personal growth and empowerment.

We know and welcome thee in many forms as thy presence arises from within.
